

The Federal Trade Commission maintains www.OnGuardOnline.gov with information regarding internet safety for children. The site offers important tips on safe internet usage and how parents can communicate with their kids on how to safely use both online and other electronic media communication tools.

Feel free to contact my Rochester office and speak to Katie LaShomb at 585-232-4850 if you have any questions or concerns. Thank you very much for helping to keep our kids safe online.
